

The proposed Broadcast ownership changes should not be approved. The resulting consolidation of the broadcast industry like the consolidation of other industries is not a good thing. Haven't we learned from previous consolidations? History is about to repeat itself ... and it won't be good.